pol-044	Version: 3.00 Last amendment: June 2014	Approved By: Council Date: 04 May 2005
To be read in conjunction with: Work Health and Safety Legislations	Next Review: June 2017	Contact Officer: Deputy Chief Operating Officer

INTRODUCTION

Under the Work Health and Safety legislations the University has a primary duty of care to ensure the work health and safety of all people who work, study, and visit its campuses or are potentially affected by its operations.

The University recognises that success in achieving a healthy and safe workplace depends on the commitment and cooperation of workers, students and authorised visitors throughout its areas and activities. All members of the University community must comply with this policy and related procedures, and should take reasonable care to prevent personal injury, injury to others and prevent or minimise damage to plant and equipment. Moreover, it is the responsibility of all members to bring to management's attention instances of real or potential hazards or unsafe practices.

STATEMENT OF AUTHORITY

The authority behind this policy is the Charles Darwin University Act 2003 part 3, section 15.

INTENT

This Policy states the University's commitment to providing a safe and healthy working and learning environment. It provides the overarching principles to manage and guide all decisions and activities at the University with due regard for the health and safety of the University community.

This Policy applies to all University's workers, students, authorised visitors and all operations at workplaces managed or controlled by the University. It also applies to situations where business or undertakings for the University are carried out at locations other than University campuses.

RELEVANT DEFINITIONS

Authorised visitor means bona fide visitors that the University may, from time to time, provide with access to facilities to enhance their ability to complete tasks for the University or to liaise with the University. Such visitors may include, but are not limited to: alumni; external auditors or consultants; potential clients or business partners; contractors or vendors; conference delegates; and students and staff of other universities/partner organisations with reciprocal arrangements;

Consultant means a person or organisation engaged by the University to provide goods or services. This also includes contractors;

Staff member means everyone employed by, or associated with, the University on a permanent, casual, adjunct, honorary, voluntary or contractual basis, whether full-time or part-time, volunteer, or those holding University offices or who are a member of a University committee;

Senior Executive means a staff member holding the position of Vice-Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Chief Operating Officer, Pro Vice-Chancellor, Chief Financial Officer and Deputy Chief Operating Officer of the University;

Senior Manager means a staff member holding the position of Director or Head of School of the University;

Student has the meaning as contained in the Charles Darwin University \(Student of the University\) By-laws;

Supervisor means the immediate day to day manager of an individual or group of workers, students in classes and/or on field trips;

University community means all University's workers, students, authorised visitors, and external appointees of Council, boards and committees of the University

University facilities mean any premises, physical, online or virtual environment, for the time being used for the purposes, or under the auspices, of the University;

Volunteer means a person not receiving remuneration as a staff or council member, who is engaged in a professional capacity to perform an activity for, or on behalf of, the University;

Wellness Programs means any University supported or delivered program that aims to improve the health and wellbeing of University staff, students and/or authorised visitors; for example, "Quit Smoking" program, Employee Assistance Program, and yearly influenza vaccinations;

Worker means any person who carries out work in any capacity for the University, including but not limited to, University's staff members, contractors, subcontractors and their employees, apprentices or trainees, students gaining work experience, and volunteers; and Workplace means a place where work is carried out for the University and includes any place where a worker goes, or is likely to be, while at work. This may include, but is not limited to, laboratories, workshops, training rooms, on-site recreational facilities, vehicles or vessels, on field trips, in teaching facilities, in offices, in rural environments and any area of industry operations.

POLICY

Health and safety is an integral part of all operations at the University. The University's overall objective is zero harm to any person while working, studying or visiting the University facilities. All injuries are preventable and the University actively pursues an incident-free workplace.

The University is committed to:

- Providing a healthy and safe working and learning environment for the University community;
- Eliminating and/ or minimising hazards and associated risks, so far as is reasonably practicable; and
- Complying with Work Health and Safety legislations, relevant industry standards and codes of practice.

To fulfil these commitments, the University will:

- Develop and maintain a Work Health and Safety management system appropriate to the nature and scale of the University's operations and risks;
- Ensure Work Health and Safety risks are actively managed through systematic hazard identification, risk assessment and implementation of effective controls at workplaces;

- Set up Work Health and Safety organisational structures, committees, and communication channels for dissemination of Work Health and Safety information, addressing and resolving Work Health and Safety issues and concerns, and also for consultation on decisions that can impact on Work Health and Safety;
- Provide appropriate health and safety induction and training to the University community;
- Establish measurable objectives and targets to ensure continuous improvement in order to eliminate and/or minimise work-related injury and illness;
- Provide necessary resources for the development, implementation and review of the Work Health and Safety management system and programs to ensure ongoing effectiveness; and
- Deliver and support “Wellness Programs” for staff members.

Failure to Comply

Failure to follow safe systems of work, misuse of Work Health and Safety equipment, tampering with Work Health and Safety signage, damaging or bypassing risk control measure, or interfering with another person’s effort towards Work Health and Safety can lead to severe fines or prosecution under the Work Health and Safety \(National Uniform Legislation\) Act and Regulations 2011 or other relevant legislation, and will also be dealt with under the University’s Code of Conduct, Charles Darwin University and Union Enterprise Agreement and Student Misconduct By-laws and Procedures.
