

Department of Corporate and Digital Development Workforce Services WIL Scholarship

Eligible courses 2024

Workforce Services delivers a variety of services to the Northern Territory Public Sector. The intention of this scholarship is to support the development of Human Resources professionals with skills in areas such as employee relations, legislation interpretation, workforce planning, work health management, workforce analytics and HR information system management.

Eligible courses include Bachelor, Bachelor Honours, Graduate Diploma and Masters Level qualifications in the disciplines of:

- Business
- Psychological Science, including Graduate Entry
- Laws, including Graduate Entry
- Computer Science
- Information Technology, including Co-Op